Urdd camp information website

Monday June 5th, 2023

- Pupils to arrive in school dressed in comfortable clothes for travelling.
- Cases will be stored in the hall (access via the changing room doors from the yard.)
- Any prescribed medication to be provided to Staff for safe keeping.
- Any information on the health form will indicate if your child needs medication (including travel sickness), please ensure these details are completed. Forms for medication will be given out the week before we go.

Travel

- Once the time for our departure is confirmed we will inform parents via Dojo should you wish to wave us off from the school.
- The Journey takes about 2 hours and we will have a comfort break at Pont Abraham Services.

Arrival

- On arrival children will be expected to be responsible for carrying of all their belongings, so please ensure cases/bags are suitable for your child to carry or wheeled.
- Rooms will be allocated on arrival in groups of five and six, staff will ensure each child is in a room with a friend.

Rooms

- Myself, Mrs Sprague, Miss Richards and Miss Cross will undertake a rigorous and detailed planning of room allocation.
- Boys and girls are kept apart but will be in the same wing/area of the accommodation blocks.
- As of yet we have yet to be allocated the room numbers and area.
- We will attempt to ensure the room mixes and suitable for all pupils to enjoy their time whilst away. We maintain sole control of the room allocations.

- Bedrooms
- A variety of bedrooms are available for groups of four, six or eight. Most rooms include en-suite facilities.

Food

- The Food is great and caters for everyone.
- If a child has allergies or a special diet staff are particularly helpful. (Please tell us on the health form so we can organise in advance.)
- The Llangrannog Urdd website often has a full list of the menu for the stay amongst other helpful information.

Tuesday 6th of June, 2022

- Full day of activities
- Disco and activities in the evening.
- Pupils will need to be organised and self reliant. Staff will support as they visit each activity but ultimately responsibility is with pupils to wear and bring the correct clothing.

Kit List

A recommended kit list has been Handed to you. The List will also be Accessible on the school website. If you have any questions about items Please contact me.

Please note NO mobile phones or electronic games or anything that requires a plug (Urdd Camp do not allow on health and safety grounds); they will be on the go continuously and fully entertained!

Prior to pupils departure please take time to practice packing and organising personal belongings. Pupils will need to be self reliant (especially on the last day when we pack for our return back to school)

Wednesday the 7th of June, 2023

- Usually two activities in the morning
- We will return home after lunch.
- Estimated time of arrival back to school is about 4pm
– we will keep you all informed.

School message system.

- Class Dojo and school email message system will be used to update you i.e our arrival and return time. The email we will use for this is the email used on the school system, so please ensure we have the up to date details.
- The number provided for emergency contact during the weekend will be the number that the parent/ carer has given on the Health Form when signing.
- If you do not wish your child's photos to be used on the school website/twitter/class dojo during the weekend by Penyrenglyn or the Llangrannog camp please inform us.

Any Questions

Any Worries.

- Please if you want to tell us anything in confidence please contact any of the staff via dojo so we can ensure each child has a happy and comfortable time at Llangrannog.
- We will attempt to reply as soon as possible but internet and phone signal are not always reliable.
- In emergencies there is a contact number for Llangrannog that you can contact and the staff will be able to alert us to any communications.

Thank you for coming.

Happy packing !!!!

We look forward to a great stay whatever the weather!!!!
